

Home ▶ Arts & Entertainment ▶ Music

Snarky Puppy's Roanoke show earns a Grammy

Story Comments Image (1)

Print Font Size: - +

STEPHANIE KLEIN-DAVIS | The Roanoke Times

Michael League, bassist, composer and producer for the Denton, Texas-based fusion band Snarky Puppy, addresses the on-stage audience wearing wireless headphones at Jefferson Center during a live recording of their Snarky Puppy Family Dinner CD/DVD project.

Posted: Sunday, January 26, 2014 12:00 am

Posted on January 26, 2014
by Tad Dickens

A performance recorded at Jefferson Center's Shaftman Hall last year has won a Grammy Award.

Snarky Puppy and Lalah Hathaway won Best R&B performance for their March 2013 recording of "Something," which is on the CD/DVD set "Family Dinner Vol. 1." Hathaway's vocal work on the Brenda Russell/David Foster song included a section in which she sang three simultaneous, harmonizing notes.

It is the first Grammy-nominated recording made at Jefferson Center, according to the venue's artistic director, Dylan Locke.

Read the backstory on this Grammy-winning performance in a story with bandleader/bassist Michael League.

Advanced Search

Search this site...

Go

Cloudy Breezy

22° F HI: 51°
LO: 22°

severe weather

roanoke.com
DAILY DEAL!

202 Market

Enjoy New Menu Items For Lunch or Dinner at 202 Market

BUY NOW!

Find all roanoke.com blogs here

▶ Connect with us

Featured Jobs

Project Manager

LRG Construction

Director of Special Education Instruction

Orange, VA | Orange County Public Schools

Sales Managers

Christiansburg, VA | StoneMor Partners

Accountant

Roanoke, VA | Confidential Company

Outbound Operations Supervisor

Roanoke, VA | The Orvis Company

Executive Director

Radford, VA | Radford Chamber of Commerce

Senior Structural Engineer

Lynchburg, VA | VDOT - Virginia Department of Transportation

Executive Administrative Assistant

Roanoke, VA | Depaul Community Resources

Account Sales Manager

Rody Mount, VA | Confidential Company

Legal Assistant/ Paralegal

Latest Obituaries

ALCORN, Margaret Virginia Kelly

Margaret Virginia Kelly Alcorn, 87, of Roanoke, died ...

VEST, Virginia Lambert Houchens