Monica Ellison dances at the Silent Disco event, a new event where people can use wireless headphones to cycle between three DJs, during the Austin City Limits Music Festival in Austin, Texas, on Friday, Oct. 6, 2017.

What is a Silent Disco and how has it suddenly taken over Austin City Limits Music Festival this year with shows at the Tito's Vodka tent every day of the fest? Addie Broyles and Tolly Moseley went to experience it for themselves and reveal what goes on at the Silent Disco and whether you should pay a visit. Give it a listen in our ACL Fest audio dispatch:
